

BURLINGTON SCHOOL DISTRICT
POLICY A 3: SCHOOL DISTRICT LEGAL STATUS

Former Policy AA

The Burlington School District can be defined as a City School District. It is created by the Burlington City Charter.

The school district is governed and operated by applicable state law pertaining to education laws pertaining to municipal corporations, regulations of the state board, and the Burlington City Charter. (Established by law 16 VSA 551)

The governing board of the School District is the Burlington Board of School Commissioners. The Burlington City Charter governs its composition.

Policy reviews and updates:

August 3, 1993	Policy reviewed
February 11, 1997	Policy reviewed
September 7, 1999	Policy reviewed
November 18, 2008	Policy reviewed
September 11, 2012	Policy reviewed